

Democrats Big Lie: Hateful Nazi-Style Propaganda (General Flynn Example)

By John Galt

August 23, 2020

Germany was one of the most developed nations in the world when Hitler invaded Poland in 1939. Germany's 60 million people were 67% Protestant, 33% Catholic, and less than 1% Jewish. The Bible was the best-selling book in Germany. How did Hitler convince the Germans to wage war and exterminate the Jews?

Adolph Hitler described in his 1925 book "Mein Kampf" the "Big Lie" technique that he and his propaganda chief, Joseph Goebbels, would use to convince the German people to exterminate the Jews:

"in the big lie there is always a certain force of credibility; because the broad masses of a nation are always more easily corrupted in the deeper strata of their emotional nature than consciously or voluntarily; and thus in the primitive simplicity of their minds they more readily fall victims to the big lie than the small lie, since they themselves often tell small lies in little matters but would be ashamed to resort to large-scale falsehoods. It would never come into their heads to fabricate colossal untruths, and they would not believe that others could have the impudence to distort the truth so infamously." ¹

The Democrats expertly use Hitler's Big Lie technique by constant baseless accusations that Trump is racist, misogynist, xenophobic, mentally unfit, conspires with Putin, a grave danger to the country, a bully, psychologically unstable, a dictator, a Nazi, anti-Muslim, a fascist, incompetent, etc, etc. Although none are true, millions of Americans believe these lies and have an intense emotional hatred and fear of Trump just as Hitler's Big Lie provoked an emotional fear and hatred of Jews.

The MSM propagandists with the largest audiences are the Washington Post (WAPO), New York Times (NYT), CNN, National Public Radio (NPR), MSNBC, CBS, and ABC. They are Democrat propagandists as evidenced by the recent Rasmussen report that Trump has a 95% negative media coverage and Obama had a 95% positive media coverage at the same point in his presidency. The term "Fake News" is a gross mischaracterization because it omits the sinister intent of their 'Big Lie' propaganda. Fox news is the only balanced MSM outlet with about 50% negative media coverage of Trump. The MSM propagandists include Twitter, Facebook, Google and YouTube because they use insidious means to support the Democrats Big Lie.

The Democrats' Big Lie about Donald Trump began when the Democratic National Committee (DNC) and the Clinton campaign contrived the hoax that Trump and his campaign coordinated with Putin and Russia to win the election. They hired Fusion GPS (Glenn Simpson) and Christopher Steele, who produced the "Steele Dossier" containing fabricated evidence of Trump/Russia collusion. In fact Clinton and the DNC, not Trump, colluded with Russia in the 2016 election because the Steele Dossier allegations included misinformation from Russian government sources.² Prior to the election, the media published the Russian misinformation that Steele and Simpson disseminated to them.³ Clinton accused Trump of a nefarious connection with Putin during her 2016 campaign. How many millions of Clinton voters in 2016 would have voted for Trump instead if they had known beforehand that Clinton conspired with foreigners to create and disseminate this hoax to win the election?

The Mueller Special Counsel investigated Trump and his campaign for two years and found no collusion with Russia. During this time, the MSM propagandists ceaselessly reported on the conspiracy, writing more than 530,000 stories between May 2017 and March 2019, frequently citing “anonymous sources.” The Democratic congressman Adam Schiff lied in his frequent media interviews, by stating he had evidence of collusion. At the time of the 2018 congressional elections, half of American voters believed Trump and his campaign colluded with Russia.⁴

The Democrats won the House majority with the help of the MSM propagandists using the Big Lie strategy to convince voters that Trump colluded with Russia to win the election. Goebbels used this Big Lie strategy to convince Germans it was necessary to exterminate the Jews:

“Anti-Semitic articles should appear in the press ‘every other day’ and German periodicals should show ‘an anti-Jewish face,’ both of which aims would best be accomplished by promoting younger, ideologically reliable editors.”⁵

Obama and Biden’s Traitorous Subversion of the Trump Administration

Since Bill Barr became Attorney General, a massive amount of evidence emerged demonstrating that the Obama administration tried to help Clinton win the election by using the Department of Justice (DOJ), FBI, Department of Defense (DOD), and intelligence community to: 1) illegally spy on the Trump campaign, 2) frame campaign members for Russian collusion using foreign covert agents, 3) unconstitutionally investigate Trump and his campaign members with no probable cause, 4) submit surveillance warrant requests with false evidence to the court, 5) illegally allow people outside the government to search conversations of American citizens in the National Security Administration (NSA) database, and 6) leak false information about Trump/Russia collusion to the media.⁶

Lt. General Flynn had a 33-year highly distinguished military career. He fought on the front lines to protect us from terrorists.⁷ Flynn has high moral values and a close-knit loving family. He is a role model for all Americans.⁸ In a meeting less than 48 hours after the 2016 election, President Obama warned president-elect Trump to stay vigilant on North Korea and warned against hiring Flynn.⁹ The bizarre pairing of Flynn and North Korea in a warning epitomized Obama's fear that the knowledgeable Flynn would uncover his administrations' criminal activities against Trump and his campaign. Trump named Flynn his National Security Adviser on November 18, 2016. Voluminous incontrovertible evidence proves President Obama, Vice President Joe Biden, Acting Attorney General Sally Yates, National Security Adviser Susan Rice, FBI Director James Comey and others conspired to subvert the incoming Trump administration by removing his National Security Adviser. The evidence presented below describes their treasonous actions.

A draft FBI electronic communication on January 4, 2017 repeatedly stated that the bureau turned up "no derogatory information" on Flynn since the inquiry began in the summer of 2016, so "The FBI is closing this investigation." That same day, FBI agent Peter Strzok forwarded to FBI Counsel Lisa Page a 14-page research paper on the Logan Act, and intervened to keep the Flynn investigation open.¹⁰

FBI notes on a January 5, 2017 meeting document how President Obama, Vice President Joe Biden, and National Security Advisor Susan Rice plotted to use the FBI and DOJ to get Trump's new National Security Adviser Lt. General Michael Flynn fired. In early 2017 Biden told ABC news, "I know nothing about those moves to investigate Michael Flynn," but the notes show Biden lied. In the January 5, 2017 meeting, Biden explicitly referenced the Logan Act, proving he was an active participant with Sally Yates and others who discussed, an ultimately used, the Logan Act in their plot.¹¹ FBI notes state "an alternate goal is to "get [Flynn] to admit breaking the Logan Act."¹² On January 12, 2017, the Washington Post's David Ignatius published a leak from an unidentified "senior U.S. government official," stating that Flynn called Kislyak "several times on Dec. 29 in violation of the Logan Act. The former U.S. attorney, Andrew McCarthy states that "The leak is clearly a felony violation of federal criminal law: It came from FISA surveillance of Kislyak, which is classified information." McCarthy says the Logan Act has never been enforced, and applies to "private citizens," not a transition official such as Flynn.¹³

A note by FBI head of counterintelligence Bill Priestap, after a meeting with Comey and McCabe, states, "What is our goal? Truth and admission or to get him to lie, so we can prosecute him or get him fired?" Priestap was Strzok's boss. FBI lawyer Lisa Page suggests to Strzok in an email that Flynn could be set up by making a passing reference to a federal law that criminalizes lies to federal investigators. She suggested to Strzok that "it would be an easy way to just casually slip that in. Law professor Jonathan Turley explained "this effort was not about protecting national security or learning critical intelligence. It was about bagging Flynn for the case in the legal version of a canned trophy hunt."¹⁴

Flynn's October 24, 2019 motion describes the FBI's planning and execution of a perjury trap interview:¹⁵

As news of the “salacious and unverified” allegations of the “Steele dossier” dominated the media [on January 10, 2017}, Strzok wrote to Page: “Sitting with Bill watching CNN. A TON more out. . . We’re discussing whether, now that this is out, we can use it as a pretext to go interview some people.”

In the next two weeks, there were “many meetings” between Strzok and McCabe to discuss “whether to interview [] National Security Advisor Michael Flynn and if so, what interview strategies to use.” Ex. 5.

In a January 21, 2017 email to his supervisor, Strzok explains his plan to keep Flynn unaware of the perjury trap, suggesting they “provide a defensive briefing to him about CROSS WIND” (an unknown FBI target), adding “I think it will be very difficult not to do some sort of overt step with him, a defensive briefing or interview under light ‘defensive briefing’ pretext unless WH [Obama] specifically directs us not to.”¹⁶

Flynn’s October 24, 2019 motion describes the FBI’s planning and execution of a perjury trap interview:¹⁷

January 23, the day before the interview, the upper echelon of the FBI met to orchestrate it all. Deputy Director McCabe, General Counsel James Baker, Lisa Page, Strzok, David Bowdich, Trish Anderson, and Jen Boone strategized to talk with Mr. Flynn in such a way as to keep from alerting him from understanding that he was being interviewed in a criminal investigation of which he was the target. Ex. 12. Knowing they had no basis for an investigation,⁶ they deliberately decided not to notify the DOJ for fear DOJ officials would follow protocol and notify the White House Counsel. They decided not to tell Flynn their true purpose nor give him warnings, so as to keep him “relaxed.” They planned not to show him the transcript of his calls to refresh his recollection, nor confront him directly if he did not remember. In short, they planned to deceive him about the entire scenario, and keep him “unguarded.”

The next day, at Comey’s direction to “screw it” in contravention of longstanding DOJ protocols,⁷ McCabe personally called Flynn to pave the way for the uncounseled conversation. They used their “pretext” to circumvent DOJ and ambush interview Mr. Flynn in the White House.

McCabe despised Flynn because he supported a female FBI Special Agent, Robyn Gritz, in her sexual discrimination complaint against McCabe.¹⁸ On January 24 McCabe sent Strzok and another agent, Joe Pientka, to informally chat with Flynn. They asked questions about a phone conversation Flynn had with the Russian ambassador three weeks before. The conspirators hoped the agents could elicit an answer from Flynn’s unguarded memory that was different from the call transcripts so they could accuse him of lying.

Flynn's October 24, 2019 motion describes Comey's violation of FBI and DOJ rules and Strzok's explanation of how he vilely kept Flynn unguarded in the perjury trap interview:¹⁹

Footnote 7: The government did not disclose this to Mr. Flynn until after Mr. Comey bragged about his breach on national television—not because Mr. Van Grack [the prosecutor] was complying with this Court's order. This short video (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NxNhjFrjXql>) reveals Mr. Comey's deliberate disregard for DOJ and FBI rules. In fact, Mr. Van Grack only disclosed a bland summary four days after Comey gloated about it on national television to a laughing audience—four days before Mr. Flynn's scheduled sentencing, and because this Court entered its minute order of December 12, 2017. Dkt. 10. Mr. Flynn seeks disclosure of the full report of Mr. Comey's conduct, any memos, notes, and 302s documenting his decision, which was admittedly the subject of "many intensive discussions" within the FBI. There must be at least notes of several others, including Comey's Special Assistant Mr. Campbell, that document the efforts directed against Mr. Flynn.

The Plan Worked: Mr. Flynn was "Relaxed," "Jocular," and "Unguarded."

Strzok admitted Flynn was alone, "relaxed and jocular," "unguarded," and saw the two agents as "allies." Flynn gave them a tour. He talked about hotels they stayed in during the campaign and the President's "knack for interior design," and the long hours of the job. He complained about politics, but he "always seemed to work his way to the subject of terrorism." Of course, the FBI had already read the transcripts of his phone calls, and the agents knew there was no criminal intent or any crime in his conversations.

Strzok and Pientka believed Flynn told them the truth.

On January 14, 2017, Flynn told Vice President Mike Pence he had not discussed sanctions with Kislyak. On January 26, 2017, Sally Yates, the acting attorney general, tried to get Flynn fired by informing the White House counsel Don McGahn that Flynn had discussed US sanctions on Russia with Kislyak. Flynn resigned on February 13, 2017 amid the MSM propagandists feeding frenzy news reports that Flynn lied to Vice President Pence.

The Democrats and their MSM propagandists say Flynn committed a crime because he pled guilty to one count of lying to an FBI agent. The fact is that Flynn pled guilty because the Mueller special counsel prosecutors gave Flynn, who was $1 million in debt due to legal bills, two options:

1. Do not accept the plea agreement that you lied and face up to 15 years in prison, have your son prosecuted for FARA violations, and continue incurring high legal bill leading to financial ruin, or

2. Accept the plea agreement that you lied, get probation for cooperating, avoid your son's prosecution, and end the high legal bills.

Violations of the Foreign Agent Registration Act (FARA) were rarely prosecuted, but Mueller used it as a threat against Flynn's son to coerce a guilty plea. This despicable tactic worked because Flynn chose option 2, as I would have, to protect his son. A law known as the Brady Rule requires prosecutors to disclose materially exculpatory evidence in the government's possession to the defense. The Strzok/Page text messages, the transcripts of Flynn's calls with Kislyak, and the FBI agents' interview notes were among the exculpatory Brady evidence the prosecution was legally required to provide Flynn, but did not. The prosecutors pressured Flynn to accept the plea deal quickly to hide the exculpatory Strzok/Page text messages that were publicly released the day after Flynn agreed to the plea agreement.

Strzok asked Flynn questions during the interview and Pientka took notes. FBI policy requires the 302 forms to be finalized five working days after an interview. The Strzok/Page text messages prove that they altered the 302's for three weeks after the January 24 interview before finalizing them. Lisa Page was apparently annoyed with Strzok's edits of the 302 notes. On February 10 Strzok tells her, "Lisa, you didn't see it before my edits that went into what I sent you. I was 1) trying to completely re-write the thing so as to save [redacted] voice and 2) get it out to you for general review and comment in anticipation of needing it soon. I greatly appreciate your time in reviewing and your edits. I incorporated them. Thank you." Strzok's statement that he tried "to save [redacted] voice," indicates he extensively rewrote Pientka's notes and tried to copy Pientka's writing style to hide this fact. Strzok wrongly incorporated Page's edits in the 302 because she was not an FBI agent and did not attend the interview. On February 14, Page texts Strzok, "Is Andy [McCabe] good with the 302?" The next day the Flynn 302 was officially submitted and filed with the FBI.^{20 21}

After the interview, Strzok and Pientka said they did not believe Flynn lied, but Strzok and Page falsified the 302 notes evidence to show Flynn lied. Flynn's October 24, 2019 motion describes the revisions:²²

the most important substantive changes were made to the Flynn 302. Those changes added an unequivocal statement that "FLYNN stated he did not"—in response to whether Mr. Flynn had asked Kislyak to vote in a certain manner or slow down the UN vote. This is a deceptive manipulation because, as the notes of the agents show, Mr. Flynn was not even sure he had spoken to Russia/Kislyak on this issue. He had talked to dozens of countries.

Second, they added: "or if KISLYAK described any Russian response to a request by FLYNN." That question and answer do not appear in the notes, yet it was made into a criminal offense. The typed version of the highly unusual "deliberative" 302 by that date already included an entire section from whole cloth that also serves as a criminal charge in the Information and purported factual basis regarding “Russia’s response” to any request by Flynn. The draft also shows that the agents moved a sentence to make it seem to be an answer to a question it was not.

In January 2020, Flynn filed to withdraw his guilty plea. He said “When FBI agents came to the White House on January 24, 2017, I did not lie to them. I believed I was honest with them to the best of my recollection at the time. I still don’t remember if I discussed sanctions on a phone call with Ambassador Kislyak.”²³ Flynn did not have an opportunity to refresh his memory by reviewing the call transcripts or the FBI agents’ interview notes because Mueller illegally withheld them. The government finally declassified and publicly released the transcripts on May 29, 2020, and they prove Flynn did not lie to either VP Pence or to the FBI agents about his call with Russian Ambassador Kislyak. Mueller lied in the charging document to frame Flynn by changing the meaning of what Flynn said to Kislyak, which is obviously why Mueller did not show Flynn the transcripts.²⁴ Flynn did not recall exactly what he said to Kislyak one year before. Flynn would not have pled guilty to lying if Mueller had shown him the transcripts, as required by law, because they proved Flynn did not lie.

Per the transcripts, Kislyak brought up the Obama sanctions. Flynn replied by asking Kislyak for Russia’s response to be “reciprocal,” “[D]on’t go any further than you have to. Because I don’t want us to get into something that has to escalate, on a, you know, on a tit for tat.” “We need cool heads to prevail, and uh, we need to be very steady about what we’re going to do because we have absolutely a common uh, threat [ISIS] in the Middle East right now.” Flynn did not discuss Obama’s sanctions at all. Flynn only tried to prevent increased tensions between the U.S. and Russia so we could fight ISIS together.²⁵

Stalin’s ruthless head of secret police said, “Show me the man and I’ll show you the crime.” This is exactly what President Obama, VP Biden, the DOJ, FBI and Special Counsel did to Flynn. They illegally spied on him, used the DOD spy Stefan Halper to frame Flynn for consorting with a Russian agent,^{26 27} investigated him with no probable cause, lured him into a perjury trap, leaked classified transcripts to get him fired, threatened Flynn and his son to coerce a guilty plea, and falsified evidence to indicate he lied. Biden was part of this evil and traitorous plot to relentlessly attempt to punish and destroy an innocent and honorable man. Put yourself in the shoes of General Flynn and his family and imagine how you would feel if you or a loved one was framed and prosecuted for a crime they did not commit. If you believe Flynn received his just deserts, contemplate whether you, living in Hitler’s Germany, would have believed the Jews needed to be exterminated? China, Russia, and other totalitarian countries do this, but it should never happen in America. You should greatly fear a Biden presidency because he was an active participant in this treachery.

Comey led an effort to get President Trump removed from office by leaking memos to the media of his meetings with Trump. The memos falsely implied that the president was trying to obstruct justice. Comey testified that he leaked the memos to get a special counsel appointed. Comey's DOJ and FBI co-conspirators promptly appointed Robert Mueller as Special Counsel to investigate Trump/Russia collusion based on the false Steele dossier allegations. Rod Rosenstein violated Donald Trump and his campaign's constitutional protection of probable cause and DOJ regulations by creating a special counsel investigation without specifying a crime. Mueller's investigation lasted two years and cost nearly $32 million.

Mueller did not find any collusion between the Russians and the Trump campaign, so the House Democrats then attempted to impeach President Trump on fallacious grounds to remove him from office.

For the first time in American history, the Obama administration and conspirators in the DOJ, FBI, and Democrat controlled House of Representatives undermined the peaceful transfer of power to the newly elected president. Their MSM propagandists aided their effort, much like Hitler's propaganda newspaper Der Stürmer (The Attacker) helped him rise and seize power.

Democrats and their MSM Propagandists Hide the Biggest Scandal in U.S. History

Joe Biden said he believes President Trump will "try to steal" the election in November and that he is "absolutely convinced" the military will escort Mr. Trump out of the White House if he loses the election and doesn't leave.²⁸ Democratic Rep. Jim Clyburn said the military needs to come up with a plan if Trump loses the election and refuses to leave office. Clyburn previously said that Trump is a fascist dictator who intends to remain president for life.²⁹ CNN's April Ryan said, "If Joe Biden is now going to be the 46th president of the United States, you will have him being inaugurated and watching police and armed forces trying to pull Donald Trump out of the White House."³⁰ These nonsensical claims are part of the Democrats and their MSM propagandists' Big Lie meant to vilify and provoke fear of President Trump just like Hitler and Goebbels did with their Big Lie to vilify and provoke fear of the Jews so that the German people would support the extermination of the Jews.

When the Democrats do something bad, they frequently falsely allege Trump does it or will do it. Biden and the Democrats falsely claim Trump will not peacefully leave office if he loses the election. In fact Obama and Biden for the first time in American history subverted the peaceful transfer of power by using the DOJ and FBI to get Trump's new National Security Adviser, the innocent Michael Flynn, fired. Biden and the Democrats falsely claim Trump will "steal" the election. In fact Hillary Clinton and the DNC tried to steal the 2016 election by fabricating and disseminating their false Trump/Russia Collusion hoax using foreign disinformation. The Democrats are currently attempting to steal the 2020 presidential election through their MSM propagandists' constant false stories about Trump and his supporters under the guise of news reports.

For the first time in American history 1) an administration used police powers to help their party's candidate win an election and 2) the outgoing administration and DOJ and FBI officials engaged in a seditious conspiracy to subvert the democratically elected president. This is by far the greatest scandal in U.S. history, yet the MSM propagandists virtually ignore it after more than two years of their non-stop headline news promoting the Democrat's Trump/Russia collusion scam. The law professor, Jonathan Turley, describes this in his article "Willful Blindness: New Damaging Information On The Russian Investigation Is Promptly Unseen By The Media."

"Willful blindness has its advantages. The media covered the original leak and the collusion narrative, despite mounting evidence that it was false. They filled hours of cable news shows and pages of print with a collusion story discredited by the FBI. Virtually none of these journalists or experts have acknowledged that the collusion leaks were proven false, let alone pursue the troubling implications of national security powers being used to target the political opponents of an administration. But in Washington, success often depends not on what you see but what you can unsee."³¹

Despite a huge trove of incontrovertible evidence proving the Steele dossier allegations are false³² and Mueller proving that Trump and his campaign did not collude with Russia, an April 2020 poll found a shocking 53% of voters still believe it.³³ Hitler explained this Big Lie phenomenon:

"It would never come into their [the broad masses of a nation] heads to fabricate colossal untruths, and they would not believe that others could have the impudence to distort the truth so infamously. Even though the facts which prove this to be so may be brought clearly to their minds, they will still doubt and waver and will continue to think that there may be some other explanation. For the grossly impudent lie always leaves traces behind it, even after it has been nailed down, a fact which is known to all expert liars in this world and to all who conspire together in the art of lying."³⁴

For over two years, Democratic politicians dismissed allegations that the Obama administration spied on the Trump campaign as a ridiculous Republican conspiracy theory. When recently disclosed evidence proved the FBI spied, Democratic Representative Eric Swalwell said "they were right to do it."³⁵ What's good for the goose is good for the gander. If you agree with Swalwell, do you also agree it is appropriate for President Trump to use police powers to undermine the Biden campaign? Should this be the new normal in American politics?

If Hillary Clinton had won the 2016 election, she would have made the U.S. a police state by continuing Obama's use of the DOJ, FBI, intelligence community and DOD as political weapons to gain and hold onto power. Clinton would have rewarded the criminal and traitorous conspirators in these agencies who helped her win. For this reason, even if you detest Donald Trump, you should consider his 2016 election as a triumph in preserving American democracy.

The 2020 Election is a Tipping Point for America's Future

Biden has a sizable poll lead over Trump mostly because voters fear a Trump second term. The Democrats and their MSM propagandists' Big Lies were effective in provoking this irrational fear. Biden was an active participant in the Obama administration's political weaponization of its police powers, great corruption, and the disastrous and criminal human toll of its foreign policy. There is no reason to believe that a Biden presidency will be any different.

The 2020 election is at a tipping point as explained by the renowned economist Thomas Sowell in a recent interview:³⁶

The phrase 'Systemic Racism' "really has no meaning that can be specified and tested in the way that one tests hypotheses. It does remind me of the propaganda tactics of Joseph Goebbels, through the age of the Nazis, who also said people will believe any lie if it was repeated long enough and loud enough.

The Roman Empire overcame many problems in its long history, but eventually it reached a point where it simply could no longer continue on. And much of that was from within, not just the barbarians attacking from outside.

What I see is if the election goes to Biden, there's a good chance that the Democrats will then control two branches of Congress and the White House, and considering the kinds of things that they are proposing, that could well be the point of no return for this country.

The 2020 election will have world-wide consequences. General Flynn highlights this in his Letter to America, "When the destiny of the United States is at stake, and it is, the very future of the entire world is threatened."³⁷

Professor Sowell provides some wise insights on how the political rhetoric today mirrors that of the worst 20th century tyrants:³⁸

The constitutional barriers that stand between us and the tyrannies that have swept over other peoples around the world are treated as things to be brushed aside or finessed when those who are skilled with words manipulate our emotions. The worst horrors of the 20th century, under both the Nazis and the Communists, came from concentrations of political power, brought about by heady rhetoric, powerful visions and emotional manipulations. Yet we remain as susceptible to all these things as if none of these horrors had happened.

With all our looking back at the 20th century, we have missed some of its most blatant and most horrifying lessons. The very tactics of those totalitarian movements -intimidation, demonization, and disregard of all rules in favor of politically defined results - have become hallmarks of political correctness today. We and our children are being trained to respond automatically to words that strike an emotional chord. We are being set up to be played for suckers by anyone who wants to take up where the totalitarian movements of the 20th Century left off.

This article is the first of a series peeling back the curtain to expose the Democrats' Big Lie with facts and explain why voters should greatly fear a Biden presidency and elect Trump even though they may dislike him. America's fate depends on it.
